

Cambridge Medical Seminars Spring 2008

Day 1 - Friday 30th May

- 1600 – 1815: Registration / Tea & Coffee
- 1815 – 1830: Welcome & introduction to meeting
Dr Joseph Cheriyan, Clinical Pharmacology Unit (CPU), Cambridge
- 1830 – 1920: Dermatological manifestations of systemic medical disorders
Dr Pamela Todd, Consultant Dermatologist, Cambridge
- 1920 – 2015: Population perspectives on the prevention of diabetes and its complications
Professor Nick Wareham, Director, MRC Epidemiology Unit, Cambridge
- 2015 – 2200 Conference Dinner

Day 2 - Saturday 31st May

- 0800 – 0900 Tea & Coffee
- 0900 – 0910: Welcome & introduction
Dr Fraz Mir, CPU, Cambridge
- 0910 – 1000: Managing thyroid and parathyroid gland disorders
Professor Krish Chatterjee, Department of Endocrinology, Cambridge
- 1000 – 1050: Bone metabolism and related disorders
Professor Juliet Compston, Honorary Consultant Physician, Cambridge
- 1050 – 1120 Coffee Break
- 1120 – 1210: Pituitary dysfunction and the general physician
Dr Mark Gurnell, Consultant Endocrinologist, Cambridge
- 1210 – 1300: Ophthalmology for the general physician
Dr Paul Meyer, Consultant Medical Ophthalmologist, Cambridge
- 1300 – 1400 Lunch
- 1400 – 1440: Dealing with emergencies in patients with diabetes
Dr Mark Evans, Consultant Endocrinologist, Cambridge
- 1440 – 1520: How to treat diabetes mellitus and manage long-term complications
Dr David Simmons, Consultant Diabetologist, Cambridge
- 1520 – 1550: Coffee Break
- 1550 – 1630: Insulin resistance – current perspectives and directions for the future
Dr Sadaf Farooqi, Wellcome Trust Clinician Scientist, Cambridge
- 1630 – 1710: Obesity: why and how it should be managed
Dr Nick Finan, Consultant Endocrinologist, Cambridge
- 1710: Close of Conference & Certificates of Attendance
Royal College of Physicians CPD points approval currently awaited