

Cambridge Medical Seminars Autumn 2007

Day 1 - Friday 23rd November

- 1600 - 1830 Registration
- 1830 - 1840 Welcome & introduction to meeting
Dr Fraz Mir, Clinical Pharmacology Unit, Cambridge
- 1840 - 1920 How to write papers and get published
Dr Ian Wilkinson, Senior Lecturer, Clinical Pharmacology Unit, Cambridge
- 1920 - 2015 KEYNOTE LECTURE:
The kidney in hypertension: the key to the conundrum?
*Professor Morris Brown, Clinical Pharmacology Unit
Department of Medicine, University of Cambridge
President, British Hypertension Society*
- 2015 - 2200 Conference Dinner

Day 2 - Saturday 24th November

- 0800 - 0900 Registration & Coffee
- SESSION 1
- 0900 - 0910 Welcome and introduction
Dr Joseph Cheriyan, Clinical Pharmacology Unit, Cambridge
- 0910 - 1000 To dialyse or not to dialyse?
Dr John Firth, Consultant Nephrologist, Cambridge
- 1000 - 1050 ABC of GN and 123 of RTA
Dr Menna Clatworthy, Wellcome Trust Intermediate Fellow, Cambridge
- 1050 - 1120 Coffee
- 1120 - 1210 Vasculitis: a multi-systemic disorder
Dr David Jayne, Consultant Nephrologist, Cambridge
- 1210 - 1300 Polygenic autoimmunity: how genes drive disease and may dictate therapy
Professor Ken Smith, Professor of Experimental Medicine, Cambridge
- 1300 - 1400 Lunch
- SESSION 2
- 1400 - 1440 Nutrition and feeding
Dr Jeremy Woodward, Consultant Gastroenterologist, Cambridge
- 1440 - 1520 The acute GI bleeder and managing peptic ulcer disease
Dr Steve Middleton, Consultant Gastroenterologist, Cambridge
- 1520 - 1550 Coffee
- 1550 - 1630 Inflammatory bowel disease: diagnosis and management
Dr Miles Parkes, Consultant Gastroenterologist, Cambridge
- 1630 - 1710 Key topics in hepatology
Dr Mike Allison, Consultant Hepatologist, Cambridge
- 1710 - 1715 Close of Conference & Certificates of Attendance
Royal College of Physicians CPD points approval currently awaited