

Cambridge Medical Seminars

invites you to

Endocrinology and Renal Medicine

Saturday 28 June 2025

AstraZeneca Building (DISC), Cambridge

Accredited for 6 CPD points (RCP Activity code 152257)

This meeting is sponsored by an unrestricted grant from AstraZeneca who have not influenced the content of the programme

Scan the QR code & book your place now!

08:00 - 09:00 Registration & Tea & Coffee

09:00 - 09:10 Welcome and Introduction

Dr Fraz Mir, Consultant Clinical Pharmacologist, Cambridge

09:10 - 09:50 Polycystic ovarian syndrome

Dr Lisa Yang, Consultant Endocrinologist, Cambridge

09:50 - 10:30 Obesity update

Dr Adrian Park, Consultant in Metabolic Medicine, Cambridge

10:30 - 11:00 Coffee break

11:00 - 11:40 How to avoid pitfalls when interpreting endocrine tests

Prof Mark Gurnell, Dept of Medicine, Cambridge

11:40 - 12:20 T3 treatment: what you need to know before starting

Dr Shafiq Yusuff, Consultant Endocrinologist, Cambridge

12:20 - 13:00 What's changing in diabetes?

Prof Mark Evans, Dept of Medicine, Cambridge

13:00 - 14:00 Lunch

14:00 - 14:40 Acute kidney injury - when to act quickly, when to stay cool

Dr John Firth, Consultant Nephrologist, Cambridge

14:40 - 15:20 Glomerulonephritis

Dr Kevin Loudon, Consultant Nephrologist (Vasculitis), Cambridge

15:20 - 15:40 Coffee break

15:40 - 16:20 Renal replacement therapies: transplantation, dialysis, filtration

Dr Anil Chalisey, Consultant Nephrologist, Cambridge

16:20 - 17:00 The medicine of renal stones

Dr Andrew Stewart, Consultant Nephrologist, Cambridge

17:00 Close of conference

Dr Joseph Cheriyan, Consultant Clinical Pharmacologist, Cambridge

This meeting is sponsored by an unrestricted grant from AstraZeneca who have not influenced the content of the programme